Dear Volunteer:

On February 7, 2009, hundreds of high school students, teachers, and community volunteers will come together at Inderkum High School in Sacramento for the 29th Annual Sacramento County Academic Decathlon. This year's theme is "Latin America."

This premier academic competition for high school students will not be possible without the involvement of many community members volunteering to serve as proctors, judges, and in various other roles. We would be delighted if you would be willing to serve as a volunteer at this year's Sacramento County Academic Decathlon. Can we count on you to join us?

Please take a minute to complete the Academic Decathlon Volunteer Interest Form and then return it to us as soon as possible. If you prefer, you can register electronically by going to www.scoe.net/ad/volunteers and clicking on the "Online Volunteer Interest Form".

In addition to our county competition, the 2009 California Academic Decathlon also will take place in Sacramento. Sixty teams from all over California will compete to win the state championship. For this event to be successful we need speech and interview judges, and super quiz proctors on Sunday, March 15, 2009. Please mark your calendar! Information about volunteering for this event will be sent to you in January.

If you have a friend, family member, or colleague who might be interested in being part of this exciting event, we'd love to hear from them as well. Thank you for your help and support of students by being involved in the Academic Decathlon! Be sure to mark February 7, 2009, on your calendar.

Sincerely,

Craig Irish, Coordinator
