

SACRAMENTO COUNTY OFFICE OF EDUCATION

CLASSIFICATION TITLE: Curriculum Specialist, K-12 English Language Arts

DEFINITION

Under general direction, develops, coordinates, and delivers appropriate professional development and instructional support services to schools and districts. Performs other related duties.

DIRECTLY RESPONSIBLE TO

Appropriate administrator

SUPERVISION OVER

Technical and clerical personnel

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES (Any one position may not include all of the listed duties, nor do all of the listed examples include all tasks which may be found in positions within this classification.)

Develops, facilitates, and provides professional development in English language arts (ELA), literacy, and English language development (ELD) to educators; supports school districts and other agencies to plan, organize, and promote various research-based instructional practices related to implementation of state curriculum standards and frameworks; consults on curriculum selection and development, material selection, and alignment of materials with state frameworks; serves on appropriate committees and work groups; consults on state curricular frameworks, content standards, and accountability measures; assists school sites and districts with analyzing student performance assessment data and developing instructional plans; acts as an advocate for appropriate curricular changes and modifications; testifies and presents information to local state and national educational groups and the legislature.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Education, Training, and Experience

Possession of a valid California Multiple or Single Subject teaching credential with an authorization to provide instruction in ELA and ELD (the grade-level focus of the position will determine whether a Single or Multiple Subject Credential is required); successful experience providing ELA, literacy and ELD instruction, instructional support, coaching educators and facilitating professional development activities at the specified grade-level required; advanced training in reading/language arts and administrative credential desirable.

Knowledge of:

California ELA and ELD standards, frameworks, and curriculum; best practices in ELA and ELD instruction and assessment; current ELA and ELD research; effective ELA and ELD professional development programs; principles of professional development and training; standard software applications.

Skill and Ability to:

Plan, coordinate, and manage professional development activities including large-scale trainings and events; effectively communicate knowledge and skills to others in both oral and written form and present information to diverse groups; manage the work, set priorities, and evaluate progress toward outcomes; establish and maintain cooperative working relationships with individuals and groups; organize work to meet strict deadlines; collect and analyze data; maintain accurate and accessible records.

Other Characteristics

Possession of a valid California driver's license, willingness to travel locally using own transportation with mileage reimbursed and willingness to travel within the state as required.